Williamsville Public Library and Museum

Williamsville Library and Museum:

Excitement is building as the Transition Team plans the new Library and Museum. Make sure you stop in at the Library to see the building plans and give your input on the color options for the building's exterior. The Library's story time will be on hold this year as the Director and volunteers research and write grants to help offset building costs. If you would like to be notified of the next Transition Team meeting please email Natalie Albers at noel897@frontier.com.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY:

Friends of the Library will be meeting on Thursday, September 18, at 7:00pm at the library. Please join this group to discuss additional needs of the library and fundraising activities. They will be hosting a raffle at the Fall Festival of Lego items, a Kindle Fire, and a Route 66 basket. Look for them on the boulevard and take a chance to win a fantastic prize for just $1. They will also be participating in the Williamsville Community Foundation's Quarter Auction in October. Show your support for the library at any of these functions.

Book Club: Thursday, September 25th

Join us on Thursday, Sept. 25, at the library at 7:00pm to discuss "The Storyteller" by Jodi Picoult. Sage Singer is a baker. She works through the night, preparing the day's bread and pastries, trying to escape a reality of loneliness, bad memories, and the shadow of her mother's death. When Josef Weber, an elderly man in Sage's grief support group, begins stopping by the bakery, they strike up an unlikely friendship. Despite their differences, they see in each other the hidden scars that others can't.

Book Club: Thursday, October 23rd

On October 23, at 7:00 pm at the library, we will meet to discuss "The Orphan Train" by Christina Baker Kline. Between 1854 and 1929, so-called orphan trains ran regularly from the cities of the East Coast to the farmlands of the Midwest, carrying thousands of abandoned children whose fates would be determined by pure luck. Would they be adopted by a kind and loving family, or would they face a childhood and adolescence of hard labor and servitude?

Coffee Hour is every Tuesday at 10:00am. New materials are displayed and a fresh pot of coffee is served. Come see what is new at the library and participate in lively discussions. It's a great way to catch-up with an old friend or to make a new one.

Saturday September 6th

Street Performances Begin at 1:00

Stage shows: 2:30 & 3:30 at The Old Bank Building
